After ten years in the labour market, Nancy-Faye McCagg decided to return to school to study art, the only subject she enjoyed in Junior High. Nancy-Faye took time out of her studies to create part of this year's cover design, incorporating a theme that is reminiscent of a series of self portraits where she appears as a tree, boughs weighed down with darkness, symbolizing the unknown beyond. The future, for this Forces brat from Cold Lake, includes the completion of her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree at the University of Lethbridge and the ongoing care of Gus, the Arts Centre cat. Nancy-Faye is pictured below, working on a piece that will include ceramics, plaster and stainless steel, hopefully to grace the college halls.

John Alexander Evans
May 2, 1940 - September 14, 1990

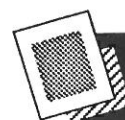

This book is dedicated to the memory of John Evans, who instructed Red Deer College students in Literature for 18 years. John was born and raised in Calgary and expressed his love of the outdoors by excelling at field sports, setting provincial records for shot-put, discus and javellin.

After receiving his M.A. from the University of Calgary, John taught in Medicine Hat, and at Mount Royal College before coming to Red Deer in 1972. John's greatest joys in life were his family, friends, music and literature and he leaves us with these words of encouragement:

Always look for and never lose sight of the child within.

PRESIDENT

As the school year is drawing to a close I find myself getting hounded by the yearbook staff for a message. Not having written one of these before, I find myself in a bind trying to figure out what to say. The year has flown by quickly, we really have to do something about this measly 24 hours in one day - I'd like about 36 hours myself. However, in these 24 hour units called days, over the last year the Students' Association has tried, and did, accomplish many things! On the service side the staff reached new heights of sales, Alana kicked butt on the withdrawal policy, Gerri got the Peer Support off the ground to fill the void on campus. Mark, with Winterthing and the on-campus clubs and societies, reached a never seen before level of co-operation. On the political front, I found out "you really can't beat City Hall," however you can make a big splash especially with Red Deer Transit, and you should not draw straws with Dr. Luterbach - you lose your hair.

The Athletic teams continued R.D.C.'s supremacy in the A.C.A.C. and with the increased number of Noon Shows and theatre the like of 'The Pirates of Penzance', the performing arts could not be matched.

To all the S.A. volunteers like the BRICKSTERS, YEARBOOK, COUNCIL, and all those people who were there to help in the booth, Open House, etc., and to all those who brought up their problems, beefs or praises - we could not have had such an impact without you.

Farewell to the people who let me work for them. Let's meet in the Far Side sometime - I'll buy you a drink.

Until we meet again,

BRIAN MACPHEE

EXECUTIVE V.P.

Here I sit, contemplating what to write ... hmmm.

Everyone in the past has made their executive message sound like an Academy Award Acceptance Speech: "I'd like to thank... this wouldn't have been possible without the support of..."

There are so many people to thank though, where would I start: and knowing me, who would I forget? So blank that noise.

I'd just like to say the year from May 1, 1990 to April 30, 1991 has been (and will continued to be at the time I'm writing this) one heck of a weird point in history. I hope this book brings back a lot of fond memories for you and reminds you of your time at RDC when you are an alumnus. The Yearbook staff has put a lot of work into this project, to make sure that you will at least be reminded of the year's highlights. Good luck to everyone from one of the Polka Queens.

GERRI POLIS

ACADEMICS V.P.

(The doctor settles the group as the patient begins to speak)

My name is Alana Racher, and I'm a Rap Addict. (nods, cheers, cries of support from the group) I like rap, it makes me happy. I can put my cares behind me, forget about withdrawal dates, grading policies (her voice cracks on these words) meetings, memos, homework (here she pauses to compose herself, the doctor takes notes) I guess being Academic Vice President just got to me. Turned me into something out of control. Sometimes I find Rap is the only thing getting me through the day - a blessed escape from a grim reality. (nods of understanding from the group) Besides, who are they to judge? Is Rock any better? Your Marks, Gregs, and Brians of the world. They have their vice ... I have mine.

Maybe I am weak, maybe I do need help, but when I hear those bongos reverberating through my office, I can let loose, be free. (murmurs of disapproval can be heard from the group at this sign of weakness, she looks around desperately) OK OK, I'll get help! Would I be here if I didn't know I needed help? I just need your support, your love, I need the understanding of the Marks, Gregs, and Brians to help me beat this thing. (claps, whistles, from the group) JUST SAY NO TO RAP!

When I think of Queen Latifah, MC Hammer, and Ice T, I will try to be strong, I will resist. I will try to beat this thing. Thank you, thank you all so much. (The group is delirious with excitement. Yet another soul saved! Yet another successful session.) That's all you will be hearing from me. I respectfully hand over my office keys to my successor, take my rap music home, and say farewell to RDC. Thanks for everything.

Signing off for now, your Academic VP,

ALANA RACHER

(yet another Polka Queen ... or was that the Lambada?)

ACTIVITIES V.P.

WOW. I'm not done my term yet but "I WANT MY MOMMY!"

It's been a year that's included some of the most difficult as well as the most enjoyable experience I've ever had. Orientation Week, the first test of my ideas and planning, was lots of fun but tough (still very wet behind the years!). Halloween!!! BIG WOW. Hours of planning and implementation but FUN - FRIED-DAYS-TOO MUCH!! "Winterthing" winter festival - nothing can compare. Hope it becomes an annual event.

The Entertainers: Derek and the Slammers, Sue Medley, The Mile High Club, Mark Labelle, The Pursuit of Happiness, Jeff Bradley, Harlequin, Trooper, Morgan Davis, Idyl Tea and many many more! All of them most enjoyable to work with.

The staff, Executives, Council Members, and friends. Thanks for your incredible support and the opportunity to learn from you. I'll see y'all around!

It's been a beautifully hectic year and "I STILL WANT MY MOMMY!"

P.S. Please don't call before noon! Thanks.

Orientation Week

Orientation Week at Red Deer College was described by Gerri Polis as a "tremendous success." Gerri, who engineered the week, said she was overwhelmed by the contributions of volunteers and would like to see this become a tradition at the College. "The Game of Life," a fitting theme, could be found in the form of directional cues such as giant game pieces and a huge gameboard covering one hallway. Three pubs - Derek and the Slammers, Sue Medley, and the Beginner Bender Beach Bash also helped to get everyone into the swing of things.

We are often reminded in subtle ways that the world is full of special people. There are those that have the talent of music; they entertain. For some performers the awaiting crowd is a screaming audience of pumped up spectators. For others it is a small gathering in enjoyment of what they have to offer. Those that perform get pleasure by giving. Those that listen get pleasure by rockin'. In the end, each needing the other. In this way the Students' Association gives to the students. And all we have to do is enjoy it. So ENJOY it.

She-MAN

College Residence

Introducing the staff and students that help run the residence, ( in photo, below right) : On top of van: Dave Bowen, Ken Lewko and Aaron Allison; in front of van: (l-r) Fern Bolduc, (Manager), Cathy McLean, Lana Johnson, Tim Hoven, Lauri-Ann Tipman, Leanne Sjogren, Dawn Long and Tim Guest (Business Manager). These people helped us survive the strangest and wackiest experiences of life, as we now know it.

◀ Jacquie Wild, Shereen Knapp, Theresa Takafow and Barb Clark. So this is that peer pressure they've been telling me about.

▲ If I'd known pork chops took this long I'd have made Kraft Dinner again.

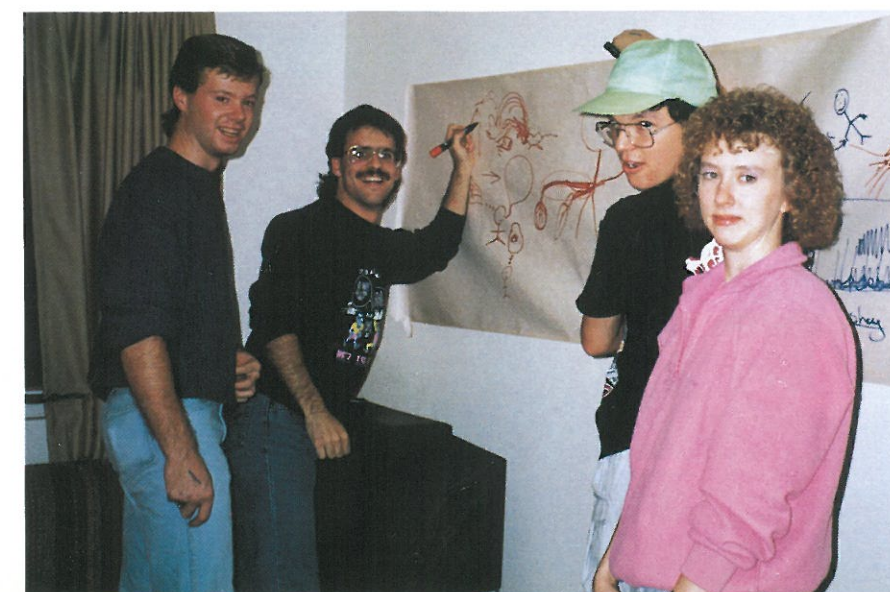

◀ Hallowe'en Bashers? Or is this just a typical Sunday afternoon in Rez?

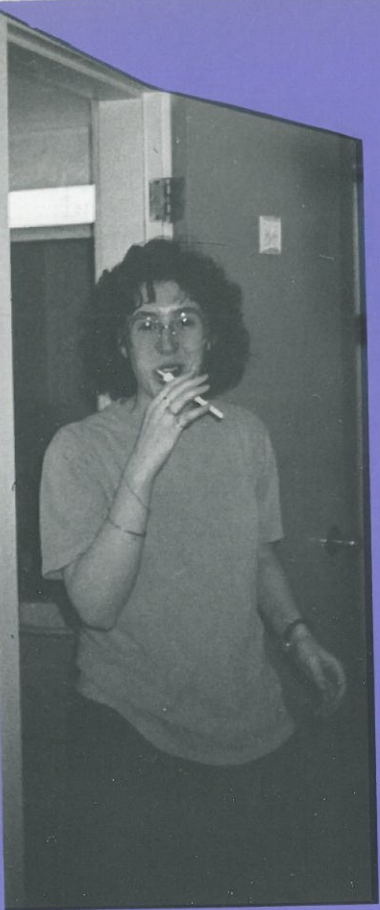

▼ Honest, Mom, two beer per semester, max.

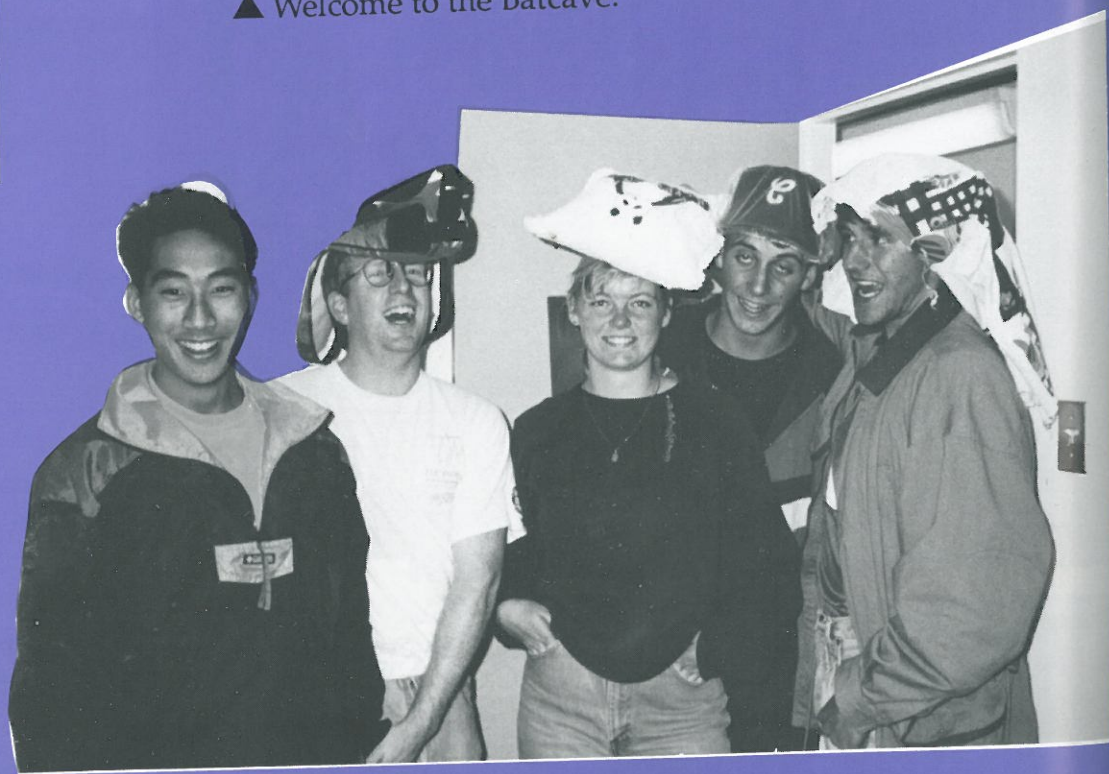

▼ Rez even offers its own courses; Don Marshall, Shawn Campbell, friend, and Heidi Radcliff take colouring 201-B....it's even transferrable.

▲ Welcome to the Batcave!

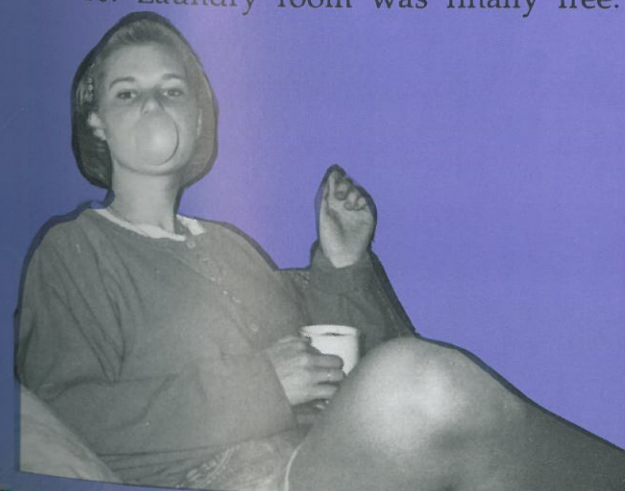

▲ Okay, so whose idea was this anyway?

▲ Of course I'm studying....what does it look like I'm doing?"

Top 10 reasons why rez rowdies skip class:

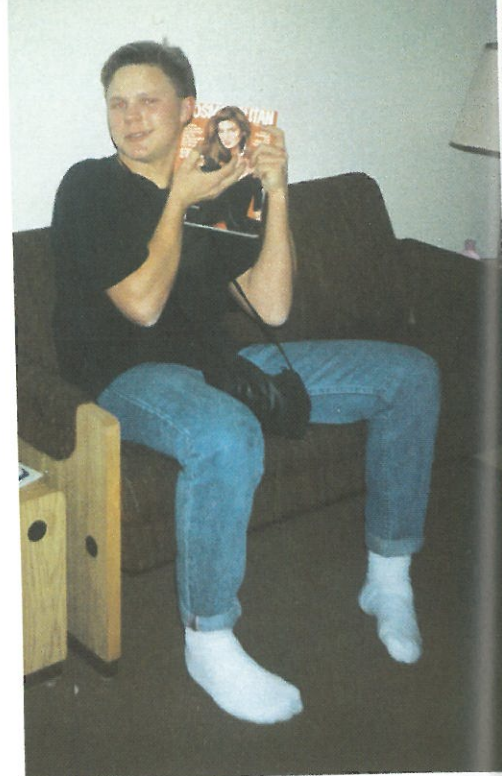

1. Someone else was in the shower.
2. Too much studying, too many bars.
3. The dog ate my class assignment.
4. Truck wouldn't start.
5. Gold fish died.
6. Hit the snooze button one too many times.
7. Eight o'clock classes should be illegal.
8. I'll go as soon as this ringing goes away.
9. Had a friend in need..with a hangover.
10. Laundry room was finally free.

R.E.A.D.I.

This year the READI (Responsible Education Against Driving Impaired) Committee was extremely busy in their efforts to stop students from driving impaired. During Orientation, over 2,000 students signed a banner pledging not to drink and drive. At pubs, the Committee members handed out DUTI cards while wearing shirts that reminded you 'Your Mother Lied'. They brought in the Labatt's Road Scholarship to teach advanced driving techniques. At press time they were also hoping to bring in Ben Wicks to speak on 'knowing when to draw the line'. READI also provided some alternative entertainment to the usual 'hang out in the bar' scene. The Rocky Horror Picture Show and the Sweetheart Movie Nights were big successes. Perhaps the most encouraging thing to note, however, is that on New Year's Eve 1990 and after the Halloween Bash at the Altlaplex NOT ONE impaired charge was laid! Attitudes towards drinking and driving are changing and READI is proud to accept some part of the responsibility. In closing, we'd like to remind you of a popular slogan from 1990/91: YOUR MOTHER LIED! Her distant advice continues all semester, but really - if you drink & drive, and wreck, and your guts are splattered on the road while your face sticks to the windshield, and witnesses vomit at the sight of you - nobody really notices your underwear.

❄️ Winterthing ❄️

One of the biggest events of the year was the Winterfest, organized by S.A. activities coordinator Mark Chipeur.

The week featured activities such as the Assassination Game, Cake Decorating contest, and the Tobbogan "Torture" Races. This fest even included an air band contest which featured the great "Shave off contest. There were water balloon races, and the grand finale hosted by the Tennants Association, "The Wear What You Dare Pub." (They even had a pie eating contest so you could wear what you ate. The week was nothing short of fun and frivolity. A great success and an awesome blast!

Below are highlights of the Great Shave off, and the air bandfestivities. The Shave Off was a fund raiser for the Christmas Bureau. 1/3 of the anticipated funds were raised, so 1/3 of an elite group of individuals were shaved. To say the least Brian McPee was the unlucky, but charitable soul. The night was topped off with the air band contest which was a hilarious success!

► Air band M.C.'s: Richard Dulney and Glen Deulin.

▲ Sexual Tyrannosaurus sang "Touch Me Now," by Samantha Fox, and came in first.

▲ Cheryl Hand and friends.

▲ "Watcha Do to My Body," by Lee Aaron, performed by th B. Comm and B. Sc. Societies.

A Brickster Speaketh

"Be heard, not heared" (UBYSSEY)

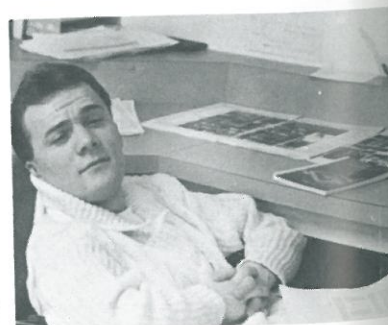

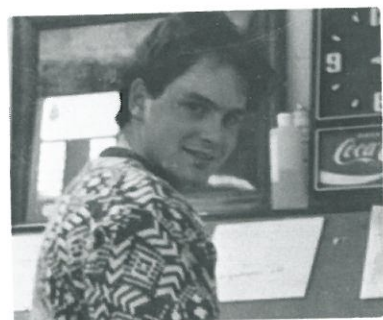

by Chris Wilcock

They're called "Bricksters."
Taken from the name of their new found obsession -- being a college journalist.
If it is written, if it is photographed, or even if it is thought--it is important. "The Bricklayer" is a vehicle for those ideas. There are no monetary rewards, and no academic credits. What is recieved, and attained are the rewards of college that one can't obtain through an over priced text, or in a three hour evening lecture.
Being a Brickster gives an individual the opportunity to meet friends that wouldn't be met through the world of a text book hermit.
Bonds of friendship, that if nurtured will grow steadfast, and strong.
Becoming a Brickster gives an individual the opportunity to come into contact with a variety of diversified opinions, issues, and thoughts.
By exposing oneself to the world of collegeoutside of the bars or the classroom, an individual will learn more than they have ever known, and learn the true value of commitment--being committed not to scheduals, or to prof's, but to themselves.
As a Brickster, this is a year in which I will reflect with gratitude, for the chance to meet a wonderful, and very special acquaintance, new friends, the chance to hear and be heard and most of all the opportunity to learn what I want to do with my life.
To those of you entering college for the first time, or to those of you returning, I urge you to get involved in something other than just studies.
Besides, ten, or twenty years from now, as you reflect through this book, you will have more memories of pride and accomplishment--if you got involved while you were here at R.D.C.

FROM THE EDITOR

The past year was a very interesting one for myself. It started with my election as Editor-in-Chief in September. This mushroomed into the major shaping force in my life. Over the course of that term a great many things happened.

The paper received a new look at the beginning of the year with two new mastheads and some other small changes to the format. On top of the new look were several new additions to the paper. Most prominent and controversial among these was the new comics section, straight from the U. of A. and courtesy of the Gateway. Along with this were several new columns including Bar Bull, The Rock, and Pik of the Fliks. All of this was joined with consistent contributions from many other sources such as the K.S. center, the Health Center, READI, the enjoyable fiction and poetry of John Williamson, the entertainment news from Chris Wilcock and of course the infinitely enjoyable features from Scott Johnston.

Supplementing, and in some cases making, these pieces was the wonderful pictures of Mike Duckworth, Danielle Piard, Rob Gilgan, and the underwater photography of Elaine Wright.

This year saw the return of several prominent staff members, such as Mike Duckworth, Jason Frizzel, and Steven Kenworthy as well as the addition of many new ones, including Ralph Card, Lou Metcalf, Lesley Henderson, Chris Wilcock, Danielle Piard, Chris Brilz, and the infamous Scott Johnston.

Many thanks also need to go out to all the people that made the publishing year successful in more low key ways. Most prominent of which were the Ad Sales Representatives, Holly Watson, Jeff Griffiths, Iris Cherry, Barry Sharpe, Rob de Jong, Rhonda Sauer, Michelle Scriven, and Scott Johnston.

The year was also punctuated with a plethora of memorable moments, a disastrous fall CUP conference, the first complaints about the comics, the last paper going out the door before Christmas, and of course Scott's Valentines feature.

One of the biggest accolades needs to go to Rob Gilgan and Kelly Quine. These two are the permanent S.A. staff that keep the paper going. Without these two the paper quite probably would not exist and certainly would not be in the position and condition it is today.

And of course some of the credit for the paper also needs to go to me, but I don't think I really want to talk about that.

To all of the people that helped make this year as successful as it was, a give my undying gratitude and to future Bricksters I give express my best wishes and deepest sympathy.

Many thanks and Happy Trails,
Jason Snider
Editor-in-Chief

Are you one of those who can nod, you don't lock their keys into the car, drop their keys down in the dark? Ever Since many of us have now had a chance to familiarize ourselves with R.D.C.. I thought I'd throw in a little dictionary of terms. Some of these words and places might not have crossed your pallet.

Anyway here's the A-B-C's of R.D.C. I hope you enjoy them.

Admin Offices (n)- where teachers hide from the students. Not to be confused with the Far Side, where teachers hide with students.

Arts Centre (n) - location of all Noon Show performances.

Bank Machine (n) - mostly out of service. Location of long line-ups at noon. Equally as long as cafeteria at noon.

B12 Complex (n) - Vitamin. Wonder drug of the nineties. Useful in controlling hangovers if you take about four (before you drink).

Bookstore (n) - exactly like the LRC only more expensive. Location of the second longest line-ups at the beginning of the year.

Bricklayer (n) - student newspaper which apparently is not scurrilous enough for the taste of some of faculty members. Simply the best newspaper in R.D.C.

Cafeteria (n) - good place to get quick, inexpensive meal, unless your there at noon.

Cashier (n) - where you go when they find out you haven't paid your tuition. Location of the third longest line-up at the beginning of the year.

Chipeur, Mark (n) - SA Activities VP who doesn't believe in sleep. Can be found either in the Far Side, or pushing pubs in the Forum. See also Coffee Hound.

Coffee hound (n) - 90 percent of the students who have 8:00am classes. Need we say more?

Cornerstone dining (n) - elegant meals cooked by student chefs. Location in the 1500 wing.

Dead (adj) - adjective which most accurately describes students who have 8:00am classes. Also describes most things in the undergrad's fridge.

Determination (n) - anyone who leaves an assignment until the night before. (L.A. and the Yearbook crew- Chris W.) Or anyone who tries to convince their prof that they should have passed must have plenty of this.

Dissect (v) - how you find out what they really put in your sub. See also lab.

Drink (v/n) - what you think you really need while writing an exam (n). What you really need to do when the weekend comes (v).

Essay (n) - lengthy piece of your writing and your time which makes up a large portion of your mark. Often left until the last few days.

Euphoria (n) - feeling of elation or well being on a Friday after the last class. Also can be felt somewhere above .08%.

Evidence (n) - That feeling of euphoria the RCMP will use against you in a court of law, etc., etc. It's generally better to take a cab.

Far Side (n) - great place to slip away from reality. RDC'S spirit emporium. Generally packed at noon and at three. Good food, good music, great drinks.

Forum (n) - the central meeting place of RDC. Not a good place to try to study. Often smells like pizza in the afternoon (hmm, I wonder why?).

French (n) - opposite of English. This language is useful to politicians and peoples of Quebec. Some useful expressions: "Comment ca va?" (how goes it?) and "Ca va bien" (it goes well). Now you can have a complete French conversation. See also Zut.

Friday (n) - Last day of the school week. Day of relief and intoxication. Officially kicks off the weekend. Most pubs take place on Friday.

Garnish (n) - those pickles that stay on your plate long after your hamburger is gone.

God (n) - Supreme Being worshipped by most people. Prayed to often at exam times- "God help me pass this test."

Grapple (n) - to struggle with an idea. Often leads to procrastination (ie yearbook. -C.) out of frustration. "Aughh, I'll do it later."

Guts (n) - see lab.

History (n) - a chronological record of events with an explanation of their causes. ie "the test on Friday was a real bitch so I went out Friday night and got wasted. I had to work Saturday with a killer hangover."

Hangover (n) - disagreeable physical effects following heavy drinking. See also B12 Complex.

Horizontal (n) - best position for sleep or for hangovers. Examples of this can be found in the lounges.

Ice (n) - solidified water used to keep drinks cold. This same substance forms on cyclists spokes, on their hair, in their nose etc. during the cold winter. Popular name for rappers. ie. Vanilla Ice, Ice T.

Infinity (n) - length of time; as in the amount of time left between now and the next holiday.

I.D. Card (n) - without it you're a nobody. Also the location of the first longest line at the beginning of the year.

Infidelity (n) - More fun than skiing. Ivory Tower (n) - location of SA offices, the Used Book store, and the Bricklayer and Yearbook. The flight of stairs in the Far Side entrance, is the way to climb the ivory tower.

Jail (n) - generally a good place to avoid. If you want a record try A&A, or HMV. See also Evidence.

Jam (n) - a large festive gathering of musicians. Some of the best jam sessions are the Noon Shows.

Job (n) - human labor resulting in payment of money necessary for bills and beer. "Well that's what we want out of this place, right?"

Kevin Sirois Center (n) - Athletic center here at R.D.C. Which leads everyone to wonder, "how do you say 'Sirois?'"

Knowledge (n) - understandably gained by actual experience. Refers to something kept in the mind; ie. innards of the fetal pig. Some things would rather be forgotten.

Kings (n) - Men's athletic teams. See also Y-chromosome.

Labs (n) - a place equipped for experimental study in a science. Generally not the most favorite part of any course. Let's refer once again to the dissection of the fetal pig.

Loft (n) - the upstairs overflow area of the Far Side; a good place to check out bald spots on people sitting below.

Lounges (n) - Located in various wings of school, these are good retreats for smokers, studiers, or sleepers. Comfy couches and tables abound.

Luterbach, Dr. Ed (n) - esteemed president here at Red Deer College.

LRC (n) - the Learning Resources Center. Let's not call it a library, no the LRC has so much more housing about 135,000 books and AV materials. Open about 76 hours a week. The entrance is located in the Forum.

MacPhee, Brian (n) - SA benevolent (single) President. Like Mark Chipeur he is also a coffee hound. You can usually find Brian in the Far side of up at his office in the Ivory Tower.

Midterm (n) - an examination given half-way through the year to see if we are all following. Many of us have been through these. The stress was evidently worn off on the weekend.

Mile High Club (n) - local band which performs at a few of the SA pubs as well as doing the bar circuit. Look forward to seeing them at the Halloween pub.

Monday Morning (n) - Worst of the seven days. Great day to sleep in and rest up from a hectic and exciting weekend (spent living and breathing yearbook-Diane).

Nervous (adj) - easily excited or annoyed; apprehensive. A state of sheer terror and white knuckles present before an exam.

Noon Show (n) - a gathering of music students in the Arts Centre to perform for the large audiences who are fond of their extreme talent. Performed at noon; price on dollar.

Numb (adj) -lacking sensation. (ie. the minds of the Yearbook Staff after pulling an all-nighter-D).

Obscene (adj) - nature of the language written in washrooms around the school proving that yes, RDC students are illiterate.

Overflow (n) - that area of parking that, although it's free, it's also usually overfilled. It's located about 10 miles north of RDC.

Parking (n) - hard to find if you haven't got a parking card. Parking here is great for sixty bucks a year, or seventy five cents an hour. Just don't park by the front entrance. Polis, Gerri (n) - our honourable SA Vice President. Also album reviewer for the Bricklayer.

Procrastination (n) - the art of waiting (which the Yearbook Staff has mastered as a science-D).

Pubs (n) - social events put on by our SAC. A good place to get together with your friends and dance to great LIVE bands or watch comedians.

Queens (n)- The women's athletic teams of the college. See also X- Chromosome.

Quaff (v.t) - to guzzle, see also Drink.

Racher, Alana (n) - SA Academics VP. Also reviews albums for the Bricklayer.

Registration (n) - The second most hated portion of the school year. Right after finals. Start with a bang, end with a bang.

SA (Student's Association) (n)-political organization by the students, for the students. Offices are located in the Ivory Tower.

School (n) - large institution composed mainly of bricks and glass. You can't get out when you're a kid and you can't get in when you're an adult.

Skiing (n) - most fun possible without taking your clothes off.

Sleep (n) - eyes closed, lights out, in dreamland. Not to be confused with passed out.

Spirit (n) - ELIXIR OF LIFE at RDC. A drink of higher percentage, or the state of emotional elation lately non-existent at most functions.

Time (n) - amount of seconds between sleeps or weekends. See also Infinity.

Transportation (n) - means of getting from point A to point B. Unless you take the bus, which goes A to X to N to B.

Uniformed Commissionaires (n) - "Oh my God, someone parked out by the front entrance, quick dial 911."

University (n) - larger than a college. Eventual destination of transfer students. Also made mostly of bricks and glass.

Unpreparedness (n) - condition of not being ready. Those students who study for five minutes or less.

Vehicle (n) - method of transportation; either car, bike or horse. The latter has been sort of out of style for a while now.

Vocabulary (n) - combination of words used in diction. ie. "I got wasted at the Far Side."

Warning (n) - threat given when there is no evidence.

Wasted (adj) - about four times as elated as Euphoria. Often results in Hangover.

Whiskers (n) - These form on the school cat Gus, or on a day old beard. The cat's are longer.

Wit (n) - words of wisdom carved into washroom stalls. Often starts with "Roses are red..." See also Obscene.

X-Chromosome (n) - A pair of these makes the woman.

X-Mas (n) - holiday of gift-giving and receiving. Extremely hard on an undergrad budget.

X-Rated (adj) - PG 13 with more skin and less plot.

Y-Chromosome (n) - and you thought clothes made the man

Yearbook (n) - a pictorial historiography of RDC for a given year. Mugshots are placed in order of faculty. The best source of memorabilia for your college year.

Yonder (sl.) - a method of describing the distance to the Arts Centre from the far side. "Well, I reckon you'd head over yonder."

Zeal (n) - excited ambition found most commonly in September. Rapidly declines around mid-terms only to be replaced by a zeal for summer.

Zillion (n) - a really really large number. Can be used to describe the amount of pages needed to be read over the weekend.

Zipper (n) - was the best thing since the invention of the wheel; only to be replaced by the "ouchless" 501.

Zut (sl.) - French expletive. "Ah Zut, I forgot to study."

Editor's Message

Well, what can I say? "Just when I thought we had procrastinated this baby right out the window, it is now nearing the end and we are going to finish the book." I'll tell ya, it's been interesting. I've learned a lot about myself in this last year working as Editor. I now believe Patience is a virtue, and that hard work does pay off. I've had a great time working with the volunteer's, there was such a wide range of personalities it was hard not to have fun! I believe that getting involved with the Yearbook is going to create one of those memories that a person never forgets. Anyone who gets involved with school volunteer activities is going to experience what College life really means. When I first started on the yearbook, my main theme in life was, "Experience is the key to success", I still believe this to be true. No matter how much studying you do, or how many personal contacts you have, there is no way a person can feel the joy of living unless you've experienced life to the fullest - yourself! This is one of the reasons I wanted to dedicate the Yearbook to John Evans. His quote, "Always look for and never lose sight of the child within," means a great deal to myself, as I'm sure it does to many others. (We tried to reflect this through out the book with both serious, and fun filled ideas.) No matter how bad things get or how low your feel, you can always look for the joy, and humor inside of yourself. You lose so much time and enjoyable experiences if you let life pass you by. Go out and jump right in to the mainstream, make a difference! Show yourself, and others, you want to make that difference! Before you know it, you won't be able to control your excitement from showing, and affecting others positively around you.

Anyone who asks me what I've learned this past year will hear these words, "Be yourself, accept others for who they are, and learn from them", and "follow those who know and know that they know, for they are 'wise.'"

Who would I like to thank? I don't even know where to begin. I've had such a great variety of people helping me throughout the year I would probably miss someone. To the great one's- Kelly and Rob ... Thank's, I Know I've Been a Real Pain Sometimes! I've learned the most from the two of you; when to be serious and when to be carefree. I won't "blame the Yearbook on you", but your ideas and your work were brilliant! A special "thank-you" goes out to Chris, Dianne, and Danielle; for being here when push came to shove.

P.S. Be involved, you won't regret it! (Yes I'm glad it's over!!!)

Expressions

The essential portion of any artistic display is the performer's use of emotion and expression. That expression is art, and art naked without expression would be but a colourful display. Like magic and alchemy the artist adds life to each piece, bringing emotion and energy, creating feeling, pumping adrenalin. Art is life, just as life with expression is energy, and in this, energy is expression alive.

The Ballad of BAMFIELD

We'll we slogged through the mud
That was deep on the beaches
We ducked under branches, were a rabbit wouldn't go
We slid on our britches, and tip-toed o'er the broadwalk
Going through the bushes onto the beach below.

We climbed up the rocks
And slid down the Far Side
Looking for the perfect place to lay our transect so.
We made ourselves a line from the low tide to the high tide,
And counted the anemonies while the tide was low.

As the tide grew higher
We were taking up the slack
Counting all the barnacles that clung to every crack Making notes and watching all, as the tide rolled in,
Heading for the high ground when a wave came crashing in.

We climbed up the shore
And beachcombed the shoreline
Instruction being given on making horns just so fine
To cut up a kelp, using bulb and stem parts,
Learned to be fog horns and to blow with all our hearts.

Back to our boat
And on the Far Side
Up to some dinner so that onward we could go.
We ate all in site while stories were abounding
Then back to the docks, with MUALTA we did go.

Out on the water
A dredging and a trawling
We pulled up the bottom to see what lived below.
While up on the boat deck, the faces were a greening.
Bot' instructor suffered most, at least appearing so.

Cruising o'er the water
Just a rocking and a rolling
Watching seals on the rocks, and in the water go.
Kelp farms observed with floats all a bobbing
Making food for the hordes, in the surf below.

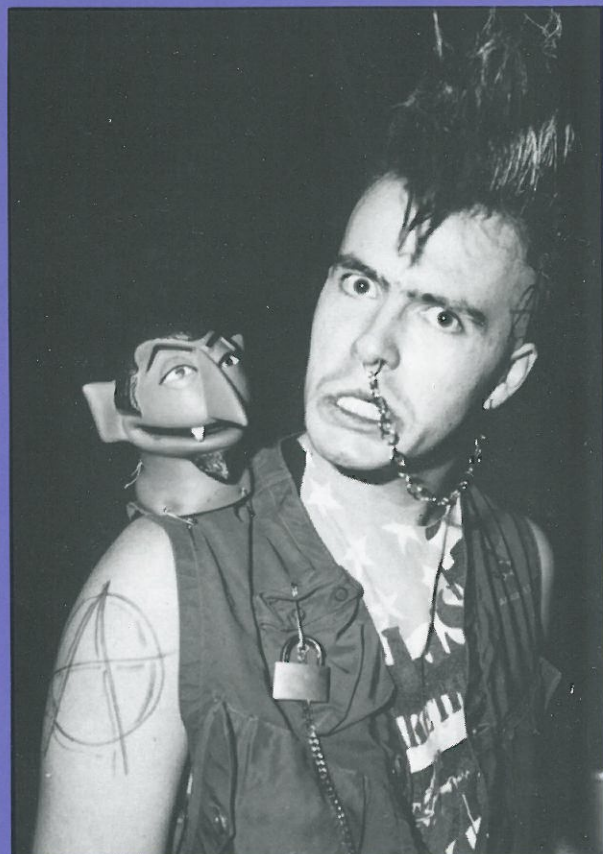

We cruised by the rocks
And back to the harbor
Onto the docks to the solid ground below.
Out of our gear, and up to the hilltop
Into the labs for a lecture we did go.

▼ Flower Power!

RDC has taught me to be more independent than high school. I am from a small school and RDC has opened me up to many new people.
Dean Wilson

RDC has given me a chance to meet all sorts of great people, new friends, and it has made school a lot more enjoyable.
Aaron Allison

RDC has been a learning experience for me. Everyday I find out new things I didn't know. I have learned that every minute of every day is accounted for and that twenty-four hours is not enough in a day.
Aerin Flanaga

RDC has given me more independence and lots of good friends; more than I have ever had in my life. It's just great.
Rhonda Benfeld

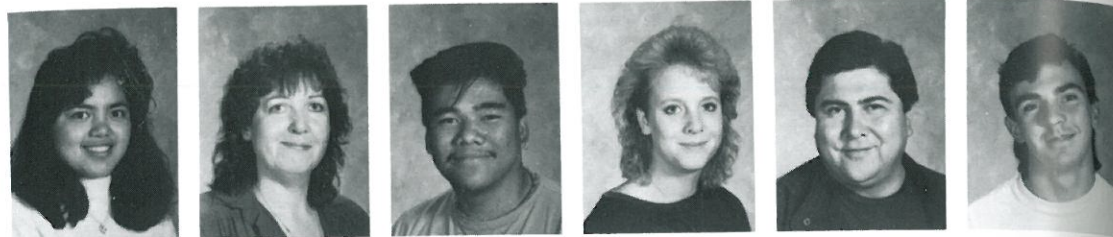

RDC is like night and day from U of C. School is very carefree and people are more willing to make friends.
Rhonda Auclair

RDC has given me the best education possible: terrific instructors, supportive classmates, and the opportunity to be involved in the workings of a dynamic institution. I've also met some of the most interesting people I have ever known.

Pirates of Penzance

In December, Richard O'Brien presented Gilbert and Sullivan's classic musical, "The Pirates of Penzance," as a Christmas card to the community of Red Deer as a way of saying "thank you" for their continued support over the past four and a half years.

"Pirates" even starred a few members of the community as actors and musicians.

"Pirates" ran for a total of eighteen performances, proving the dedication that the staff and students of the theatre studies have for their work.

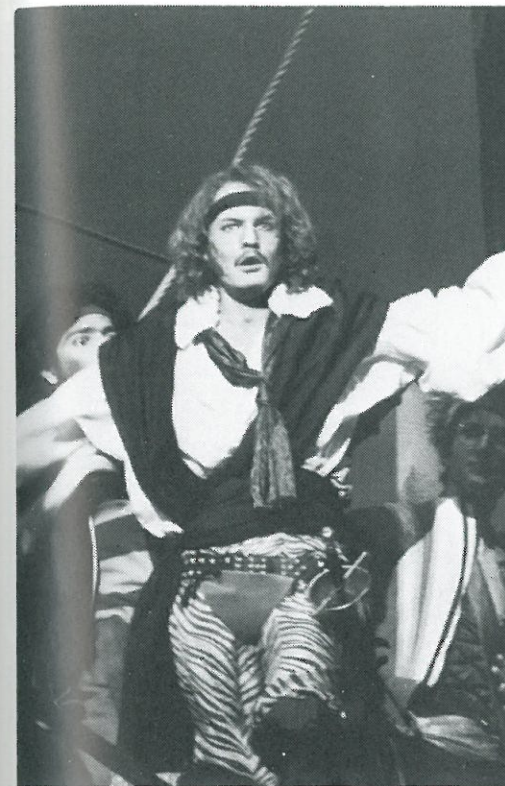

▲ Led by Robin Wilcock as the Pirate King, this motley group of hellions sets sail for adventure and mischief.

▼ 17 beautiful maidens waiting for their dream men. Poor things just don't know what their in for.

▲ Mike Cherrington straddles from his patriotic flag.

▲ The Pirate King belts out the joys of his chosen profession in the song, "Oh Far Better to Live And Die."

▲ Stuart Beach, as the Major General, proves that the only difference between men and boys, is the price of their toys.

▲ Tess O'Brien, as Mabel, woos her admiration to the young Fredrick (Jonathan Hetherington.)

▲ Always the clown, seen here is Samuel (Trevor Anderson) hamming it up for a few laughs.

► "Oh Men of Dark and Dismal Fate." Sings the Major General. He is worried about facing life without his daughters , now that they have given their hearts to the pirate ensemble.

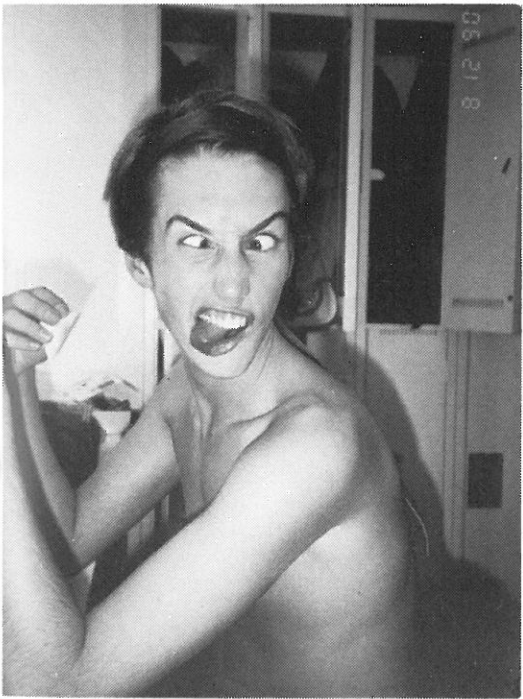

▲ Edith (Kathrine Grefner) expresses her confusion about her feelings for the roughish brutes in the song "What Aught We To Do?"

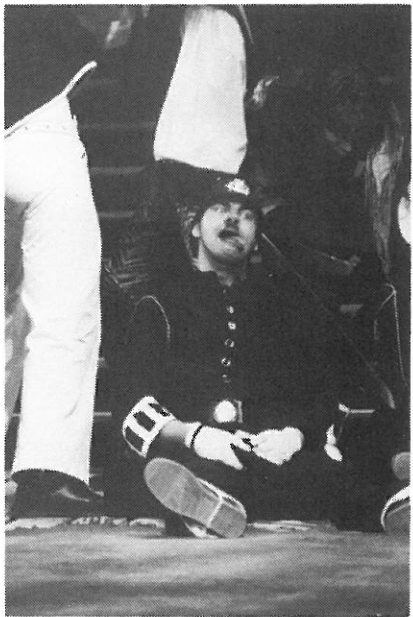

► The macho Samuel is flanked by two of the maidens (Sarah Chaput and Karen Hunt.) Looking at Trevor, one can't wonder why he chose acting as a career.

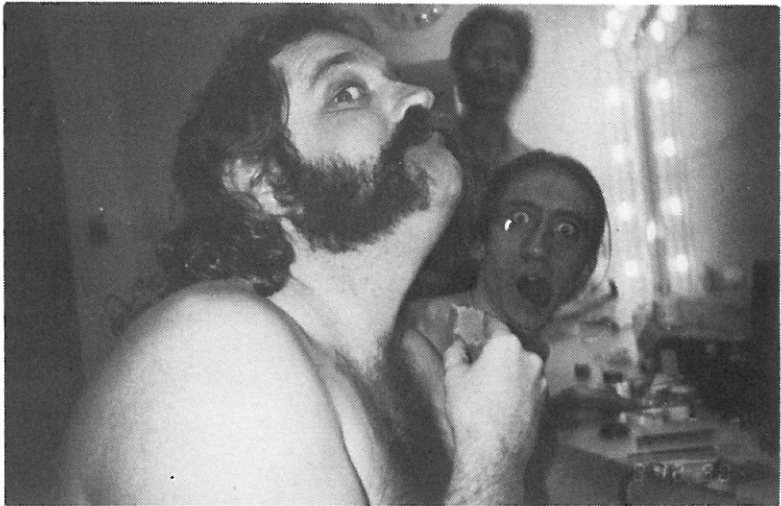

▲ The Pirate chorus featuring April Dunham as Ruth.

▲ Trevor Anderson prepares for his role. (Those facial excersizes, though painful, do help an actor project their emotions on stage.)

▲ Bill Rademacher as one of the Keystone Cops lies worn out at the feet of the nasty pirates.

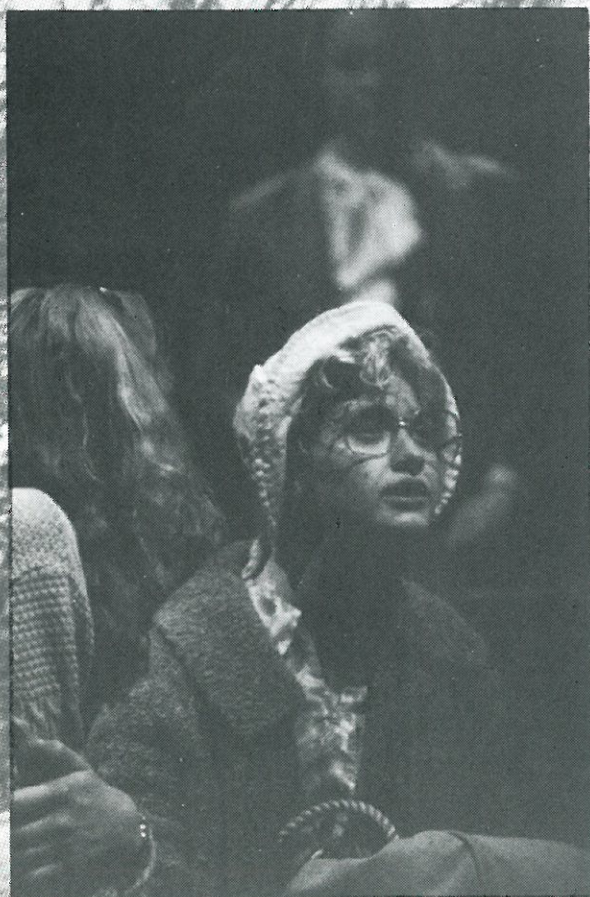

▲ Stuart Beach shows his commitment as an actor. The beard is real; though Mike doesn't look like he believes it.

RIMERS OF ELDRITCH

A cold and destructive frost covers a fictitious small Alberta town. Frost that consists of lies, deception, and controversy. Lies instead of truth, for truth is often buried and frozen.

Is the old hermit the guilty beast? Was he murdered as a punishment, or was he a victim of a town's collective hatred? Only the quiet ones who must stay silent, and the vocal guilty parties who tell only lies know the horrible truth.

Left - Candice Ford as the elderly Mary. Is it she who knows the terrible truths about Eldritch? Or is she just a senile old woman?

Above - Robert (Mike Charrington), and Eva (Christen Cummings) at the trial. Eva is the victim, yet is Robert telling the truth as the events really happened?

Left - The Johnson family (Melinda Gordon, Marla Dains, and Kirk Heuser) try to calm Patsy after her scare with Skelly.

Below - Myron Deardon as Skelly. The cause of the town's fear.

Above - "...and he pushed me from behind! He's immensely strong!" Robert's tainted testimony is told. Clearing the guilty, and forever condemning the innocent.

Dangerous Liaisons

▲ This voyeuristic set was designed by guest designer Cheryl Chalagan. On stage are Merteuil and Madam de Volanges (Coral Edington) discussing the adventures of Valmont.

Imagine a world controlled by the manipulations, and games of two people, Imagine that in this game, there are no rules. Except One. Do not, under any circumstances, let your emotions affect the way you think-- or play your hand. In Larry Reese's adaptation of Christopher Hampton's classic, "Les Liaisons Dangereuses." (Which in was adapted from a novel of the same by from a novel of the same by Choderlos Laclos 1741-1803). Such a world does exist. The players in this game to the death are Le Vicomte de Valmont (Robin Wilcock), and La Marquise de Merteuil (Kathleen Arnold).

► Madame de Tourvel (Jacquollyne Adkens) confesses her submission to Valmont's love. Madame de Rosemonde (Barb Moore).

◀ Valmont excitedly tells of his greatest conquest. Manipulating the honorable Touvel into loving him. La Marquise looks on with interest, telling him in reality he has manipulated himself and let his heart control his mind.

▼ Emile (Lisa Morris) and Valmont share an intimate game of hide-and-go-seek.

▼ Valmont instructs his servant Azolan (Mike Cherrington) to secretly send his letters to the reclusive, and honorable Madame de Tourvel. All in the hopes of winning her away from her husband.

 Red Deer Industrial Airport • Ph 886-5191
 "WHERE THE SKY IS NOT THE LIMIT."

Following the post-war reduction in the size of the air force, the number of highly-trained ex-military pilots declined to the point where there was a shortage of qualified pilots. In response to this a group of ex-airforce pilots, with input from the airlines, set out to develop a program to train pilots to the highest possible standards. It was found the most successful and competent pilots were the ones with a strong background in post-secondary mathematics and physics. Using all available input from the flying industry and the military, they combined flight training and an academic syllabus targeted at the major airlines. The result: the aviation diploma.

Today the vast majority of airlines consider an aviation diploma a definite asset, some even consider a diploma or military experience to be a prerequisite.

With this in mind, Sky Wings Aviation Academy in conjunction with Red Deer College offers a two-year diploma in the field of aviation. Students will graduate with a strong background in science and aviation-related subjects associated with flight in modern high performance transport aircraft. At the end of the first year, all students will have received a Commercial Pilot Licence. In the second year, students will have the option of obtaining either a Multi-Engine Instrument Rating or a Flight Instructor Rating along with a Single Engine Instrument Rating.

The United States Federal Aviation Administration predicted a shortage of 42,000 commercial pilots by the 1990's. Such shortages are also expected in Canada and world-wide. A demand for all categories of commercial pilots now exists and is predicted to continue for several years.
